

Research & Publication
Workshop: CAHSS Faculty
Perspective

Hosted by the AOK Library and PROMISE

Erin Durham, Library

Jasmine Shumaker, Library

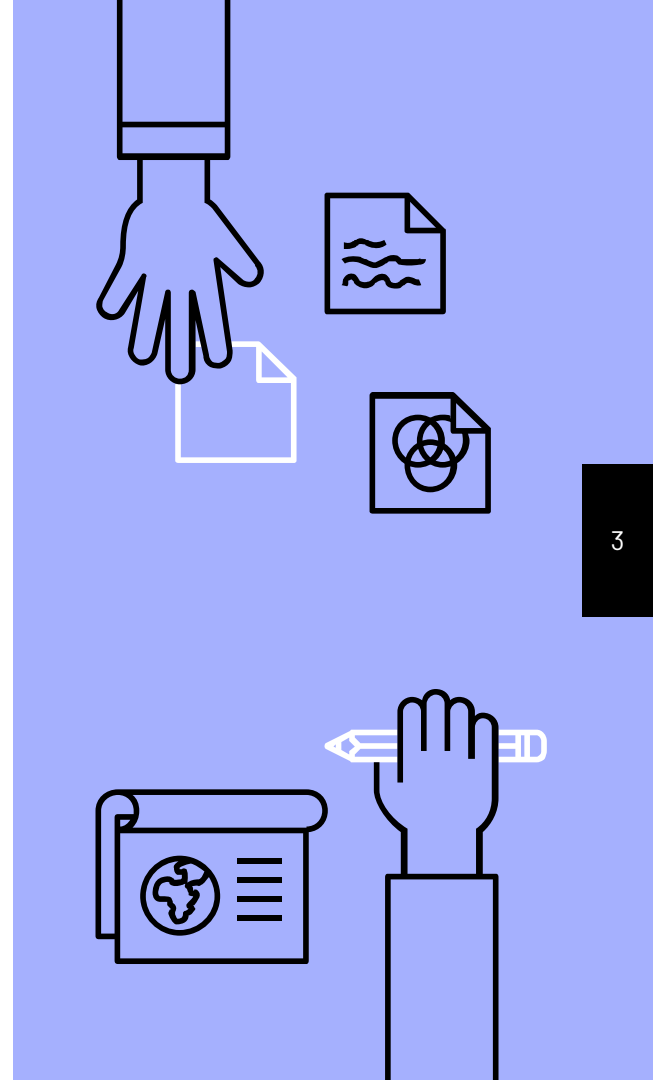

Yarazeth Medina, PROMISE

*Note: this session is being recorded

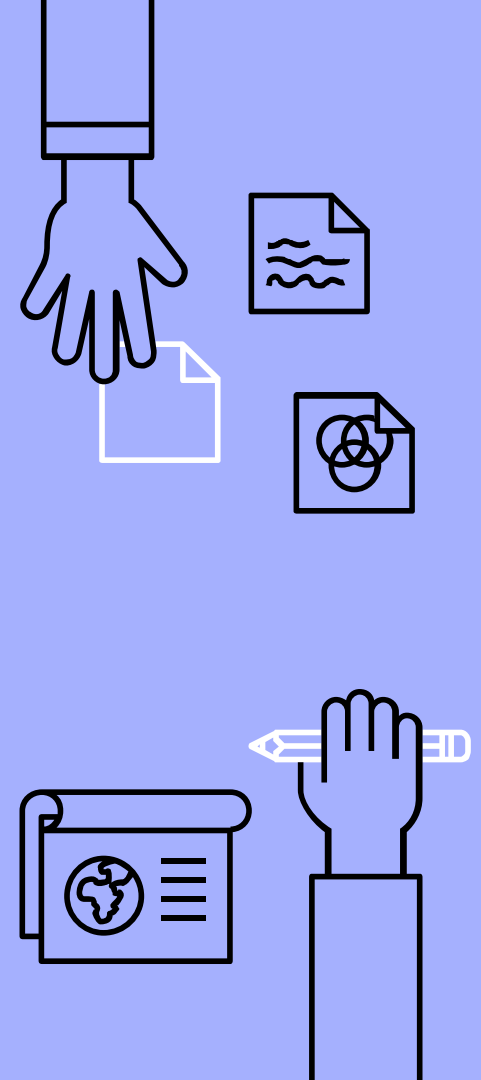

Meet our panelists:

Pamela R. Bennett, Ph.D.
Professor
School of Public Policy

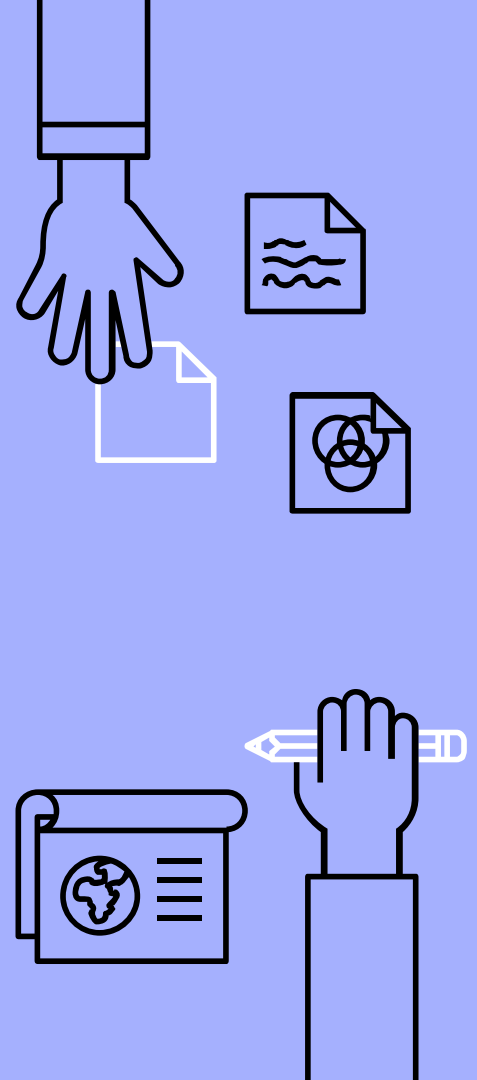

Meet our panelists:

Felipe Filomeno, Ph.D.
Associate Professor
Department of Political Science

Meet our panelists:

Tania Lizarazo, Ph.D.
Associate Professor
Dept. of Modern Languages, Linguistics, & Intercultural Communication

Research Resources for Grad Students

Make a research appointment

Check out our grad student guide

Check out workshop recordings

Questions for panelists

“

New authors in academia may find it difficult getting their work seen by those in their field. Can you provide insight into how one might promote their recent publication(s)?

“

What factors come into play when selecting a journal to submit a publication to?

“

How do you identify relevant conferences to attend and present your research?

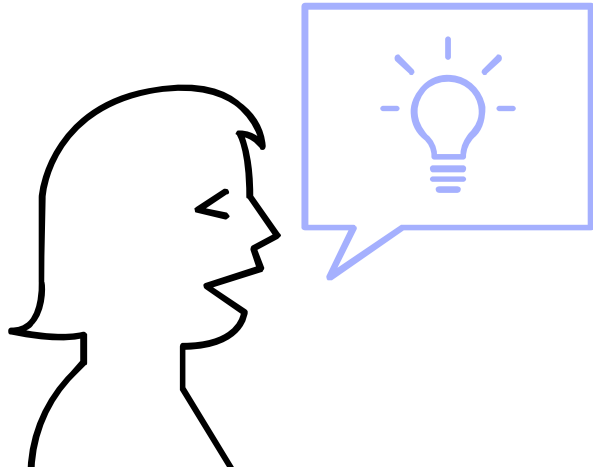

“

- ▷ Do conference papers count as publications?
- ▷ Can I submit a conference paper to a journal?
- ▷ What are the differences between revision proceedings of journals and conference papers?

Any questions?

Please feel free to put in chat any questions you may have for our panelists!

“

How do you process feedback from peer reviewers? When receiving feedback, do you always have to modify what the readers/revisions of a publication comment/suggest?

“

Would you recommend publishing something as a working paper?

“

Is there a particular policy on how authorship is managed? Who is the first author, the second, the third and how does that hierarchy affect the validation of my research/ work?

“

Can you give some tips on overcoming perfectionism while writing for publication?

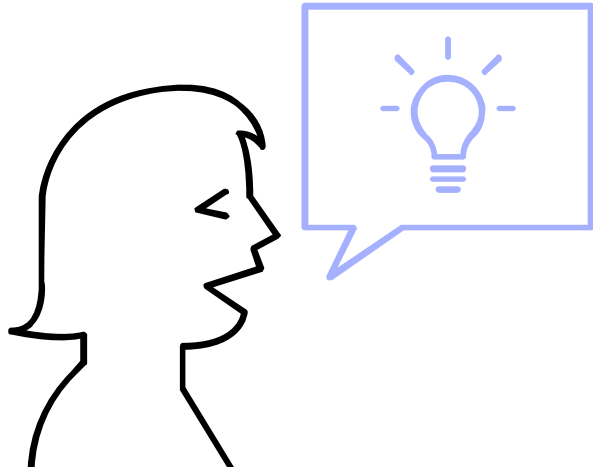

“

What advice do you have for students to increase their writing productivity and time management skills? Do you write everyday? Do you have a scheduled time a week to write?

Open Q&A!

Please feel free to put in chat any questions you may have for our panelists!

Thank you for attending!

Erin Durham:

edurham@umbc.edu

Jasmine Shumaker:

jshumake@umbc.edu

PROMISE Team

promise@umbc.edu

